2. Learned counsel for the accused-petitioner submits that the first bail application of the accused-petitioner was dismissed vide order dated 14.02.2025 and thereafter, the second bail application was dismissed vide order dated 30.05.2025. Counsel submits that the accused-petitioner is in custody since 15.11.2024. Counsel further submits that the first bail application of the accused-petitioner was dismissed at the stage of investigation, thereafter, the charge-sheet has been filed against the petitioner and other co-accused before the concerned Court. Initially, the matter was kept pending for investigation against other co-accused and later on the police has submitted the charge-sheet against other co-accused also. Counsel further submits that charges have been framed against the petitioner and other co-accused and there is a long list of 144 prosecution witnesses to be examined and the trial of the case may take considerable time. The other co-accused have also been enlarged on bail, therefore, the third bail application of the petitioner may be allowed.

4. Heard and perused the material available on record.

5. Considering the arguments advanced by learned counsel for the petitioner and considering the fact that petitioner is in custody since 15.11.2024 and further trial of the case may take considerable time, this Court deems it just and proper to enlarge the accused-petitioner on bail.

6. Accordingly, the third bail application under Section 483 BNSS is allowed and it is ordered that the accused-petitioner Naresh S/o Kalyan, in connection with FIR No.167/2024
