

IN THE HIGH COURT OF MADHYA PRADESH
AT JABALPUR

MCRC No. 4158 of 2026

(KHUSHI KAUR Vs STATE OF MADHYA PRADESH,)

Dated : 27-02-2026

Shri Vikash Kumar Santu - Advocate for the applicant.

Shri A.S. Baghel - Government Advocate for the respondent/State.

The Court has received the report from concerned I.G. officer.

After perusal of the report, it is found that some important aspects, which were raised by the present applicant in the application, are missing from the record, and the application was disposed of by mistake.

The Court is not discussing these aspects in detail, as the trial proceedings are still pending in the trial Court. However showing its pleasure about the such report with insufficient details though it is noted that efforts were made to provide the details from journey of Raipur to Jabalpur of her colleague. The material aspect is still not clarified in the report.

Let the report be placed before the Registrar (Judicial) in sealed cover, who shall keep it in safe custody for a period of at least for one year with a view to be considered if the need arises. Since the application already disposed of.

The proceedings pursuant to submission of report is required to be concluded here.
